

floral yeet

New Year cross-stitch pattern

This pattern:

Yeet means throw. As you create this lovely cross-stitch, contemplate yeeting all the negatives of 2020 out of your life and embracing good that can come in 2021. When you look at this finished piece of artwork, remember you have the power to yeet negativity out of your life.

Materials:

- Embroidery floss (any color)
- 14-count aida
- Needle
- Scissors

Reminders:

- Each filled in square on the grid represents a cross-stitch, also referred to as an x-stitch.
- Lines represent back-stitches.
- For cross- and back-stitches, use 2 strands of floss OR 1 strand doubled.
- Embroidery floss has 6 strands of floss, so you will need to separate strand(s) before you thread the needle.
- Need help getting started? Visit the City of Coppell YouTube page for tutorials.